

The Seton Summer Reading Club

We'd love to share your achievement with the Seton community! Here are some ideas:

- Take a photo with your finished books and certificate
- Create a costume of your favorite character
- Create a drawing of a character, or a scene
- Create a model of a scene from a book from clay, lego, or anything else
- Do a creative dramatization on all or part of any book read

To submit a photo to share with the homeschooling community, visit the reading club website.

Don't forget!

When you complete your reading goals, visit the website to get your Achievement Certificate and submit any photos you'd like to share with the community.
